

WHY DON'T YOU

IF YOU WERE BUYING A TOWN LOT AND HOUSE, YOU WOULD HIRE A LAWYER TO SEE TO IT THAT THE TITLE WAS CLEAR AND THAT THE DEEDS WERE PROPERLY EXECUTED. WHY DO YOU DO THIS? BECAUSE YOU WANT TO GUARD AGAINST THE POSSIBILITY OF LOSS.

WHY DON'T YOU

SEE TO IT THAT YOUR INSURANCE POLICY IS WRITTEN IN A RELIABLE COMPANY?

WHY DON'T YOU

SEE TO IT THAT YOUR INSURANCE POLICY IS WRITTEN BY AGENTS WHO UNDERSTAND THEIR BUSINESS?

WHY DON'T YOU

USE THE SAME PRECAUTION IN INSURANCE THAT YOU DO IN YOUR OTHER BUSINESS DEALINGS? DO YOU KNOW WHAT COMPANY YOU ARE INSURED IN. DO YOU KNOW WHETHER YOUR POLICY IS WRITTEN RIGHT OR WRONG? DO YOU KNOW THAT MANY POLICIES OF INSURANCE ARE VOID BECAUSE OF THE IGNORANCE OF THE AGENT WHO WRITES THEM? YOU SHOULD KNOW IT, BECAUSE IT IS TO YOUR INTEREST TO KNOW.

INSURANCE THAT DON'T INSURE IS NO INSURANCE

RIOTERS ARE NOT YET IN THE TOILS

The grand jury requests that a copy of this report be delivered to each member of the board of supervisors.
We, the grand jury, recommend that a footbridge be erected across Pinal creek, at a point near the Arizona steam laundry. This in order that the residents of Noftsgier hill may have access to the business portion of the city without finding it necessary to pass directly in front of houses of prostitution; and that this have the attention of the city council at once.

It is requested that a copy of this be delivered to each member of the city council.
To the Honorable City Council of the City of Globe:
We, the grand jury of Gila county, territory of Arizona, respectfully recommend that no more saloon licenses be issued for houses to be conducted within 1,500 feet of the North Globe town-site library building, situated just inside of the north boundary of the city of Globe, Arizona. We believe that an ordinance passed to this effect by your honorable body immediately would be for the best interests of the entire community.

Respectfully submitted,
N. H. EMMONS, Foreman.
DEMONSTRATION DRAWS BIG CROWD

the way with its doors unlocked and no one inside—the jail with its every door padlocked and everybody in."

All of the labor problems and the labor troubles which this country has had in the last generation were covered in the address of "Mother" Jones; she told of the child slavery evil, and other evils of our present system and spoke briefly on the kidnapping of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone, which she characterized as the crime of the age. She spoke of the consequences of their probable execution for the murder of Ex-Governor Steunenberg of Idaho and likened it to the execution of the anarchists in Chicago in 1888, blaming the city for the throwing of the bomb which caused such a loss of life among the Chicago-policemen. Her most extreme utterance, however, was that "if these men are hanged, we will hang some of them."

Original, although wholly impossible, aphorisms, pointless epigrams and un-answered sociological riddles were plentifully interspersed throughout the two and a half hours' address, with occasionally a sharp dig at the labor employer or the "Two by four corporation press."

A pathetic incident of a starving family in one of the New England mill towns, was closely followed by the remark that temperance was wholly a capitalistic issue, not affecting the working man.

"When we get on a jag," said this motherly old lady, "we pay for it, and when the other man gets on a jag, we pay for that too." These bursts of humor were enthusiastically applauded.

The speaker also paid her respects to the courts of this country, which she declared were rotten to the core and wholly under the thumb of the capitalist class. There was no fine distinction made; all were in the same category.

At the close of the evening meeting resolutions were adopted by the rising of the audience, protesting against the kidnapping of the Western Federation officials, the methods in not allowing them a trial when they were arrested and the action of the federal supreme court in legalizing the former.

There was an absence of any disorder at either of the meetings, the demonstration being orderly in every way.

Valencia Looking Good
Recent developments in the Valencia mining property, situated eight miles south of Globe and owned by J. D. Houston and R. M. Coffee, are of a very encouraging character. The shaft, now 120 feet deep, has been in ore all of the way down, and a drift at the depth of ninety feet has opened the lead, which is four feet wide, for some distance. One foot and a half of the vein is high grade ore, going $14 in gold, $3.50 in silver and 5 per cent copper to the ton. The owners will soon commence shipping ore to the Old Dominion smelter.

William Stevenson Recovering
Acquaintances of William Stevenson will be pleased to hear that his health is far from being alarming, as indicated by a report recently published in this column, and is better than at any time since he went to San Diego. In a letter to H. Gregory he says he is much improved and a day or two before writing the letter visited the United States cruiser Charleston, anchored in San Diego harbor.

Pennsylvanians Like Globe
E. B. Campbell and wife of Williamsport, Pa., after spending a week here, left yesterday morning for California for a short stay before returning to their home in the east. Mr. Campbell has important mining interests in this district, he being treasurer of the Union Copper company and a large stockholder in the Arizona National Copper company. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell are so well pleased with Globe that they purchased a lot in East Globe on which they will build a residence and purpose spending a part of each year here.

Miner Loses an Eye
Sam Boka, who has been employed at the lime quarry of the Old Dominion, was the victim of an accident Saturday afternoon which cost him his right eye. He was struck by a piece of flying rock, which completely destroyed his eye.
